

ELIZABETH LUH

3623 Cullen Boulevard Room 204 ◊ Houston, TX 77204
(541) · 760 · 3982 ◊ eluh@uh.edu ◊ elizluh.github.io

CURRENT POSITION

Postdoctoral Research Fellow, CJARS, University of Michigan, 2020-present

EDUCATION

PhD., Economics, University of Houston, 2020

M.A. Economics, Economics, University of Houston, 2016

B.S. Economics with honors and Mathematics, University of Oregon, 2014

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Applied Microeconomics, Labor Economics, Public Economics, Economics of Crime and Discrimination

WORKING PAPERS

“Not So Black and White: Uncovering Racial Bias from Systematically Misreported Trooper Reports”

“The Impact of Financial Sanctions in the U.S. Justice System: Regression Discontinuity Evidence from Michigan’s Driver Responsibility Program” (joint with Keith Finlay, Matthew Gross, and Michael Mueller-Smith)

WORKS IN PROGRESS

“Effects of Local Incarceration rates on Children’s Educational Outcomes”

“Effects of Disparate Parking Enforcement on Long-term Outcomes”

“Effect of Early Education on Long term Educational Outcomes” (joint with Dan Engster, Scott Hofer, and M.C. Sunny Wong)

“Effect of Children’s Dependence on Parents’ Labor Leisure Decision” (joint with Will Labadie)

“The Local Effects of Incarceration” (joint with Vikram Maheshri and Kenneth Whaley)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Houston

Instructor

August 2016 - Present

Houston, TX

- Chinese Economy: Spring 2018
- Intermediate Microeconomics: Fall 2017, Summer 2018, Summer 2019
- Principles of Microeconomics: Fall 2015, Summer 2016

AWARDS AND GRANTS

2021	National Science Foundation, “Effects of Financial Sanctions in the Criminal Justice System,” 2021-2023
2019	Dr. Walter J. Primeaux Jr. and Natalie A. Primeaux Scholarship Endowment Awarded to Ph.D. student who has made substantial progress on theses University of Chicago Becker Friedman Institute Price Theory Summer Camp Cullen Fellowship Travel Grant, University of Houston Competitive fellowship program established to support graduate student travel
2018	Best Graduate Presentation Given for best presentation of a 4th year student in Ph.D. workshop; Awarded with paid trip to the Southern Economic Association Meetings
2014 - Present	Graduate Fellowship, University of Houston

PRESENTATIONS

2022	Texas Economics of Crime Workshop
2021	APPAM, Missouri Valley Economic Association Annual Conference
2019	Texas Econometrics Camp, Western Economic Association Annual Conference, STATA Texas Empirical Micro Conference (Poster), Missouri Valley Economic Association Annual Conference, University of Houston’s Graduate Research and Scholarship Project (3 minute thesis)
2018	Southern Economic Conference, STATA Texas Empirical Micro Conference (poster)

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Referee for American Economic Journal: Economic Policy, American Economic Review

Moderator for Association for Mentoring in Economics Panel Discussion

PAST WORK EXPERIENCE

2018 - 2019	University of Houston Hobby School of Public Affairs, Research Assistant
--------------------	---

OTHER INFORMATION

Citizenship: U.S.A.